

PARKSIDE LIVING ON BURKE MOUNTAIN

Introducing Farrington Park by Polygon – a limited collection of finely-crafted three bedroom townhomes in up-and-coming “The Foothills” neighbourhood on Burke Mountain. Situated in the centre of it all, a home at Farrington Park will offer residents walkable access to the future Meridian Crossing retail centre complete with new Kindergarten and close access to new schools and the Burke Mountain Trail system. Just across the street sits picturesque Galloway Park with a children’s playground, splash pad and sports court. Imagine morning strolls, picnics on the grass, and a maintenance-free playground for the kids.

Farrington Park not only boasts a great parkside location, it also impresses with striking Cotswold-inspired architecture marked by steeply pitched roof lines, stately brick and charming window boxes. Inside each home flexible open-plan layouts give you options as your needs change and three designer colour schemes let you express your personal style from sleek & modern to refined & traditional. Contemporary kitchens feature granite or engineered stone counters and sleek stainless steel appliances by KitchenAid. Ensuities are spa-inspired with luxurious rainshower heads, ‘his and her’ dual sinks and contemporary flat panel cabinetry.

The Polygon group of companies has built over 2,500 homes in the Tri-Cities area, and has earned the trust of thousands of families. A home at Farrington Park offers peace of mind knowing that all homes are built with care by one of BC’s most well-established and highly respected homebuilders.

Farrington Park will be released for sale on Saturday, September 15th at noon. The Sales Centre and display homes are located at 1338 Hames Crescent in Coquitlam and will be open noon to 6pm daily, except Friday. Three bedrooms are priced from $379,900.
