

Looking for a new home in Coquitlam? Start Here.

“Tamarack reopens this Saturday, January 19th with two bedrooms priced from $279,900.”

Seven years ago, Polygon imagined transforming a site at the base of Westwood Plateau into an admired master-planned neighbourhood that would become the pride of Coquitlam. Now one of the most sought-after communities in Coquitlam, Tamarack is the final collection of apartment homes at Dayanee Springs and will reopen this Saturday, January 19th at noon to sell the remaining homes.

“The timing of this reopening is perfect for first-time homebuyers who’d like to take advantage of the $10,000 new homebuyer’s credit” says Sales Manager Theresa Liljedahl. With construction now complete, the final homes available at Tamarack will have occupancy dates ensuring first timers can get into these homes before the deadline. “With today’s low mortgage rates and move-in ready homes, it’s a great time to secure a spot in this thriving community” adds Liljedahl.

Starting this Saturday, Tamarack will showcase three stunning new display homes in a newly completed building. These one and two bedroom apartments feature Whistler-inspired accents such as stone and heavy timber, reminiscent of an idyllic West Coast retreat. Inside, contemporary interiors have efficient open-plan layouts including gourmet kitchens with granite counters and stainless steel appliances.

Perhaps one of the best perks of living in this community is that every resident at Dayanee Springs benefits from membership to The Timbers Club, an exclusive clubhouse with over 7,500 Sq. Ft. of resort-inspired amenities.

Ideally located at the base of Westwood Plateau overlooking Town Centre Park, Tamarack is close to all the urban and natural amenities that have made the area a popular residential destination. From a hike on one of the many forest trails to attending an art exhibit at the Evergreen Cultural Centre, to a day of shopping at Coquitlam Centre, everything is within walking distance.

Starting Saturday, January 19th these final homes will be available for sale. Visit the sales office at 3156 Dayanee Springs Boulevard, Coquitlam, open noon to 5 p.m. daily (except Friday.) For information, call 604.552.3003 or visit www.polyhomes.com
