

Non-disclosure, Non-circumvention Agreement

Date: _____

RE: _____ (Business Address or Name)

This Agreement is one to another and is subscribed to by the undersigned parties to agree that any information furnished by either party to the other is for their own use exclusively and solely in connection with the confidential nature of any transactions, or proprietary or confidential information, so called and so marked.

The Trustor (Client) and the Trustee agree to utilize the greatest of care in the handling of information and directives pertaining to the principal, Trustor, Trustee, Agent of the Trust, this or any other title involved in the establishment or business of the parties All the Parties are aware of the sensitive nature that might be exchanged from time to time and agree to share such information only on those who "need to know" for the conducting of the business at hand. The Parties hereto agree to take reasonable steps to prevent information disclosed by the company about any of the principals or representatives from being disclosed or revealed to outside sources whether it is business of the client or business of the company. Any such revelation to outside sources or used in any manner inconsistent with this Agreement without the prior express written permission is hereby forbidden.

The company will not use in any manner inconsistent with this Agreement, or disclose the information to any third party, except as required by law, for a period of three (3) years from the acceptance of this Agreement. The Client, Trustor, Trustee, or any principal agree to the same.

The obligations set forth in this Agreement shall not apply to any information which:

- (a) is business known to the public through no fault of the parties of this agreement.
- (b) is known to the Company prior to the receipt, as shown by the prior written records of the Company,
- (c) becomes known to the Company by unsolicited disclosure from a third party who has not been sought out by Company in contravention with this agreement, and who has a lawful right to disclose the information.
- (d) is subsequently developed independently of the information received one to another.

No representation warranty is made as to such information and none shall be made except as set forth in a signed contract and then subject to the provisions thereof.

The foregoing correctly sets forth the understanding of the parties with regard to this Agreement and the negotiations by and between the Parties hereto.
